SUMMER EDUCATION INTERN

Studio 52, the education wing of Flat Rock Playhouse, seeks a small team of local high school and early college students who are excited to get hands-on experience in the world of educational theatre.

A Summer Education Internship with Studio 52 allows students the opportunity to...

- Work alongside professional teaching artists at Flat Rock Playhouse
- Develop leadership, organizational, and interpersonal skills
- Expand your professional network and build relationships and mentorships for the future.
- Continue to hone your own theatrical skills through participation in complimentary camps.
- Receive feedback on resumes, portfolios, and other professional resources.
- Meet with professionals in other departments to get a broader look at creative and administrative roles within a professional theatre.

Summer Education Interns are expected to...

- Actively assist teaching artists in classes and camps for students in rising 1st-12th grades
- Assist with daily student drop off and pick up
- Oversee snack, lunch, and bathroom breaks
- Support rehearsals and performances with work behind-the-scenes
- Maintain clean and organized classroom and performance spaces
- Attend a mandatory training session before camps begin, date and time TBD.

Applicants must be available to attend at least 4 weeks of Studio 52 Summer Camps running between June 13 - August 5. Selected interns will be paid a weekly stipend in addition to being invited to participate in age-appropriate camps and classes at no additional charge.

Flat Rock Playhouse is making every effort to ensure the health and safety of the acting company, volunteers, staff, students, and patrons during the COVID-19 pandemic. For this reason, all staff members will be required to show proof of full vaccination.
