

Resource Guide

for Educators and Audiences

Playhouse Jr. Touring Production For K-2nd Grade

Words and Music by:
Ethan Andersen

Directed and Choreographed by:
Lauren Hopkins

In association with © Letterland
International Ltd.

Summary of Letterland Alive!

Letterland Alive! was written in conjunction with Letterland, USA. This 40-minute, interactive musical brings the famous Letterland characters alive! Join these wonderful actors as they bring your students along with them to the magical world of Letterland. Combining live theatre with this famous and effective phonics program is sure to help your student inside and outside of the classroom!

Audience Expectations

You may want to have a discussion with your students about their role as an audience member. Live theatre only exists with a live audience present. Their energy and responses directly affect the actors in the performance.

- Respect other audience members. Stay seated and keep your hands to yourself
- Clap at the end of each musical number.
- Listen and make sure you aren't talking to your neighbor.
- Respond when the Letterland actors ask for your participation.
- Please refrain from leaving the performance as it is distracting for the actors and your fellow classmates.
- Have fun! Live theatre is a special thing to experience!

Post Show Discussion Corner

Letterland
ALIVE!

Every Playhouse Jr. production has a talented team of people that make it happen. A writer, a director and choreographer, a props and costume designer, and a sound designer. As a class, talk about what you saw during the show!

- Name three things that you noticed about the set. Did the set pieces help tell the story?
- What did you like about the costumes?
- What was your favorite part of the show? Did you have a favorite character in the show?
- What is your favorite Letterland Character? Why is it your favorite?

Class Challenge

Watch the Letterland Alphabet song and see if you can do all the action words with the actors!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5sODMbjEy5A>

We would love to hear from you!

Flat Rock Playhouse
2661 Greenville Highway
Flat Rock, NC 28731