The Carolina Cottage exemplifies simple elegance. The one bedroom, one bath vacation rental (approximately 1200 square feet) is specifically designed for those who plan on enjoying the wonderful outdoor activities that are available in the beautiful North Carolina mountains, then returning "home" for a relaxing evening before starting out on the next day's adventures.

The Carolina Cottage is located on a wooded lot in a quiet, tranquil neighborhood. With a large deck and hiking trails on the property, the Carolina Cottage is still within 10 minutes of historic downtown Saluda, within 15 minutes of the Village of Flat Rock, within 20 minutes of historic Hendersonville, within 45 minutes of Asheville, and less than an hour from Greenville, SC.

The downstairs of the Carolina Cottage is function at its finest. The stained concrete floor (with radiant heat) and pine-board ceiling lend warmth to the living area and kitchen.

The living area, complete with a comfy couch and a queen-size sofa sleeper, is purposefully arranged to maintain the cozy feeling of the cottage while providing additional space for accommodating young children.

The kitchen includes a refrigerator/freezer, stove, and microwave, and is stocked with Wilton Armetale pewter place settings – all you need for preparing a simple dinner in or ordering out.

The upstairs bedroom, with king sized bed, is a large and accommodating space with unique architectural accents. The adjoining bath features an antique claw foot tub with shower.

This relaxing spot will welcome you back after a great day of enjoying the mountains.

As with most places in these beautiful mountains, you'll want to spend most of your daylight hours outside. And at the Carolina Cottage you can continue to enjoy the outdoors by hiking the trails found on the property, enjoying meals on the private deck, and having s'mores by the fire pit.
